

Join Us as a Silsden Town Councillor!

- Are you passionate about making a positive impact in your community?
- Do you want to represent the voices of residents?
- Do you have innovative ideas to help Silsden thrive?

Silsden Town Council is seeking dedicated individuals for vacant Town Councillor positions.

Why Become a Town Councillor?

- Make a Difference: Play an essential role in shaping the future of Silsden.
- Community Representation: Serve as a vital link for local residents.
- Flexible Involvement: There is one Full Council meeting per month and optional attendance at a monthly Planning Committee meeting. The meetings are approximately one to 1.5 hours each. You can actively participate in projects outside of these meetings.

What We Offer:

- Training on a wide variety of subjects to gain the skills and knowledge necessary to effectively serve your community.
- Support from fellow councillors in understanding procedures and current issues.
